Idaho Community Foundation Announces
Bistline Foundation Grant Awards

EAST IDAHO – The Idaho Community Foundation (ICF) is pleased to announce that 17 organizations across southeastern Idaho have been awarded $68,700 in grants through the F.M., Anne G., and Beverly B. Bistline Foundation. These grants support arts education, performance, public art access, and creative opportunities that strengthen communities throughout the region.

The Bistline Foundation was established by Beverly Bistline, a Pocatello native, attorney, state legislator, and veteran of the U.S. Navy. Beverly created the fund to honor her parents' deep belief in the arts and to extend her own lifelong dedication to creative expression in Idaho.

Throughout her life, Beverly championed arts education, supported the L.E. and Thelma E. Stephens Performing Arts Center, contributed to Idaho State University, and uplifted numerous cultural institutions and artists. Although she passed away in 2010, her legacy continues through the Bistline Foundation's investments in the artistic vitality of Bannock, Bear Lake, Bingham, Caribou, Franklin, Oneida, and Power counties.

The following 17 organizations received funding through this cycle, supporting a wide range of arts access, youth programming, performances, equipment, and community building creative work:
