$200M Moment Campaign Heats Up:
Prize Pool Doubles to $40,000 to Support Idaho Nonprofits

IDAHO – The Idaho Community Foundation is thrilled to announce that the prize pool for its $200M Moment campaign has doubled from $20,000 to $40,000, thanks to contributions from generous Idahoans who believe in the power of community giving.

Now, four lucky Idahoans—one from each region of the state—will get the opportunity to award a $10,000 grant to a promising nonprofit in their community. That's right: $10,000 per region to support the organizations that care for our communities every day.

"A $10,000 grant can be truly transformational for a smaller nonprofit," said Steve Burns, President and CEO of The Idaho Community Foundation. "This campaign is about celebrating what makes Idaho special—neighbors helping neighbors—and showing what we can accomplish when we come together."

There's still time to enter!

Idaho residents age 18 and older can enter the contest online until 12 p.m. (noon) MT on Wednesday, July 30. No donation is required to enter.

Enter online at idahocf.org/make-more-good-possible.php.

On July 31, Governor Brad Little will help draw the four winners at the Idaho State Capitol. Each winner will choose a qualifying nonprofit in their region to receive the $10,000 grant and community celebration events will be held in mid-August in each grantee community.

Why It Matters

This milestone celebration honors $200 million granted to Idaho communities since 1988 through The Idaho Community Foundation. The $10,000 grants will go to promising nonprofits, Idaho-based 501(c)(3) organizations with operating budgets between $200,000 and $5 million that serve rural, remote, and economically disadvantaged communities.

From food pantries and libraries to senior centers and youth programs, these nonprofits form the backbone of daily life in Idaho. And now, with a simple online entry, Idahoans can help make even more good possible.
